

Prestige Oasis
The art of peaceful living.

Far away from the constant grind of the city, lies a place where a man can get away from it all. Most would call it paradise; you can call it home. The villas at Prestige Oasis are cocooned in the lap of verdant nature just so you can find the peace that comes with realising that all your senses are being rejuvenated. And that happens only when you are at one with the silence of the universe.

Built around a natural water body that forms the centre piece of the property, these Villas are as charming as they are luxurious. Just in case the lapping of the water invites your spirit to take a jaunt outside, step out and watch the ducks swimming lazily in the pond. Offer them a few crumbs. In return, you will find a few crumbs of the peace that comes from connecting with nature.
