

Certificate for Structural Safety of the Building shall be obtained from the Chartered Engineer once the building is completed with construction.