

Electricity Supply Plan:

Project's power requirement is met through electricity supply assurance from authority. Power supply requirement of the project will be from the nearest sub-station at the time of actual requirement. The project also proposes power back-up facility through on-site DG power supply.